

Renaissance Eng. 1450 - 1800

Prerequisites for:

- exploration (ocean trips)

e.g.:

- machines (some)

- personal skills
(crafting proficiency)
- personal wealth
- tech/math knowledge
- education

Cathedral in Florence
Exploration

Renaissance Eng. 1450-1800

~1450 another large building: largest dome, cupola, cathedral Florence prerequisites for exploration established:

compass, some machines, skills,
personal wealth (capital base), education
tech./math knowledge

Achievements: exploration, America, Africa, entire world, navigational aids, big ships, trade (sea), Gutenberg astronomy, [theological conflicts]

of ideas, science, eng. list of practitioners, exchange CALCULUS, theory for prediction

Steam power, thermo

[railways, ships, late]

industrial development centralization of production, more flexible location

economies of scale specialization

Social/political

Population shift: rural, village → towns, cities problems: health, sanitation, housing,

Economic shift: cottage industry ↓, factory owners ↑, some employees ↑ distribution of income, wealth,

Relationship engineer - (client)/employers, society e.g. Gutenberg, Galileo, Brunelleschi,

Leonardo da Vinci, Copernicus, Prince Henry

Independent/semi-independent → employed

Eng.

Education (esp. eng.)

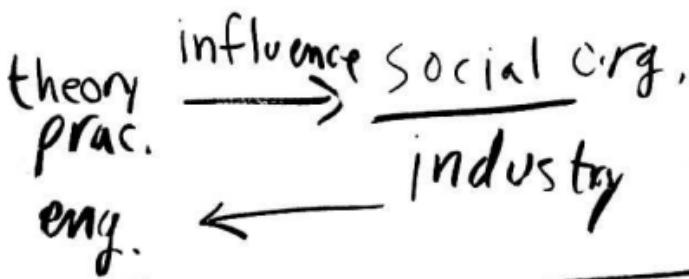

apprenticeship, on-the-job,
self-study,

Univ. Leyden (NL) 1600s (early), Giessen

Polytechnics France 1750-1800

theory ↔ practice

city

Org. for Device Production